mountaineer, in which he tells how ARTHUR GOEBEL attempted to make him swear to certain prepared statements against JIM HOWARD is not a surprise, says The Louisville Dispatch. Everyone who knows anything about the Tom Campbell-Arthur Goebel method of securing evidence knows that each of their fixed witnesses had his facts prepared and written out by CAMPBELL beforehand. BURNS refused to swear to the statement CAMP-BELL had prepared for him, and then he says ARTHUR GOEBEL cursed him, called him a coward, and told him his evidence was not needed. It will be remembered that during the trial CAMPBELL pretended that BURNS had Campbellism in Kentucky. been run out of Frankfort by the defense. This is but a fair sample of the work that convicted Powers, How-ARD and Yoursey, aided by a Judge utterance, and specially selected Juries summoned by partisan Sheriffs. Verily, Governor MOUNT knew whereof he spoke when he gave as a reason for Arthur Goebel to procure the conviction refusing requisitions for TAYLOR and of the men accused of killing Senator FINLEY his belief that they would not be accorded fair trials.

SHOT AT THE CROWD.

Isane Forst, a Politician of Some Note, in a Jealous Rage Creates a Panic in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 17.-Isaae Forst, formerly a superintendent in the street cleaning department and a politician of some renown, created a panic at the corner of Fourth and Green streets, at 5:30 Sunday afternoon, by firing three shots right into a stream of people coming from the Avenue theater, only half a block away. Fortunately none of the shots took effect, but for a time the wildest excitement prevailed, and it was feared that a serious tragedy had taken Forst has been going with a woman named Lizzie Vetter, and Sunday afternoon he met her coming up Green street with another man, l'orst did not wait to investigate, but drew his revolver and fired two shots at the man. Neither took effect. The street was full of people, and they scattered in all directions. However, after the second shot had been fired, a crowd having made his escape. Forst then turned on the woman and fired one shot into the crowd which had gathered about her, but failed to hit any one. An officer disarmed Forst after a desperate struggle, and he was lodged in jail. Forst has been in trouble over the woman before.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Louisville Gravedigger Was Shot Through the Heart While Abusing His Family.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 17.-William Ellerman, a gravedigger at Cave Hill steps have been taken to prevent its cemetery, was shot and instantly killed at his home, 731 Coke street, Sunday night. The identity of the man who fired the shot is not known, but William Newrad and John Pearce, who had left the house only a few minutes before, are suspected. The shooting is the result of a quarrel beween the dead man and his wife, They began quarreling early Sunday evening, and it is said that Newrad and Pearce, who were visiting Mrs. Ellerman's daughter, Miss Nellie Manchart, took the part of the wom-This they did, after which Ellerman began abusing the girl. Finally she was forced to leave the house, making her exit through the front door, with Ellerman in pursuit. She ran down the street screaming. When Ellerman reached the gate a shot rang out and he fell dead, the bullet having pierced his heart. Mrs. Eller-MURPHY, JEWELER man said Sunday night that she did not believe her husband had been shot by either Newrad or Pearce.

County Franchises Unpaid. Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 17 .- County and Davis, of Woodford county, are preparing to bring suits against all of the railroads in this state claiming franchise taxes in the counties through which they pass.
